THE EMIGRANT:

A Weekly Paper to be published in Milwaukee, on Saturday, the first week of December, 1850, and every succeeding Saturday.

☞ Terms—$2 00 per annum, quarterly in advance

To those who behold—every year—thousands of toiling and industrious human beings, coming to seek a home, and a shelter, far from the land of their childhood, in this American Republic, it may not appear strange that a man, (an Irish Emigrant himself,) should think of establishing a newspaper, devoted, in some measure, to the instruction and guidance of his fellows—a directory, as it were, to the stranger, in fixing on a set principle of action, suited alike to all grades and all callings—cautioning the unwary and unitiated, against the numerous snares and many pitfalls, that are constantly laid in their innocent way, [by the designing and cruel-hearted,] in which they lose their property, their pence of mind, and often times their health, never, never, (perhaps with few exceptions,) to recover those pecuniary lossses, or their former happiness.

The public are aware how many aspersions our old country men are subjected to, (sometimes deserved, but oftener not—intoxication, quarreling, and theft being the principal accusations in the calendar of crimes,) but it must be acknowledged that those misfortunes befall us from the want of some kind monitor—some trustworthy friend, to keep us in the right way, and guide our steps through the mazes of danger and vice, into which the young and unguarded fall, without knowing when that danger is at hand, or how to avoid it.

To bring the settler then to a just level with the native citizen, in every department, will be the proudest task of the Editor, and if the success of the undertaking be only partial for a time, still, with a little encouragement from the people, the laborer will be excited to greater action, and renewed perseverance, disclaiming [in toto] all party politics, at the same time exposing injustice and unmasking fraud, infamy, and deceit, too commonly practiced in a new country.

The increasing poverty of Ireland, and other European countries, [accompanied, alas! this harvest, with the failure of the wheat and potatoe crop,] must drive half a million more, next spring, to the friendly shores of this continent, and therefore, it is more than ever necessary, that our brethren should have reliable information and unprejudiced advice in a public print

The hardy and bold man from the Mountains of Kerry—the plodding, sober-minded of the rich fields of Limerick or Meath—the industrious artizan of Manchester or Birmingham—the rough, healthy-looking farmer of Leicester or Norfolk—the far-off Highlander of Caithness, or the more refined Southerner from Clyde Dale, may all profit alike by some organ suited to their tastes, yet drawing them still closer, in heart and mind, to the interests and welfare of their adopted nation

We close this notice with a hope that this publication will obtain a fair patronage, from all classes, [the people of Wisconsin in particular,] and with the assurance that our motto shall be—" The truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth!"

BOOK-BINDING ESTABLISHMENT.

AN OLD FRIEND IN A NEW PLACE!

Blank Book Manufactory and Stationery.

170 East Water street,

Third door north of Michigan street, up stairs,

And 335 Third st., 2d Ward, old stand,

Milwaukee, - - Wisconsin.

HENRY NIEDECKEN,

A PRACTICAL BOOK-BINDER of long experience, in all its branches, would most respectfully inform the citizens of Milwaukee and the surrounding country, that he is prepared to bind any description of Books, being possessed of the best gilding and finishing tools, and keeping constantly on hand the first quality of binding material. He has found it necessary, by reason of increasing business, (consequent upon his low price and superior quality of work and materials,) to open another for the convenience of his "down town" friends, at the above mentioned place, where he will be happy to see his old customers and as many new ones as will favor him with their patronage.

Bindery, Ruling and Blank Book Establishment,

Blank Books for banks, merchants, county clerks, recorders, auditors, treasurers, school commissioners, magistrates, insurance offices, &c. manufactured in the best manner, which in elegance, durability, and superiority of style and finish, will not be surpassed by any eastern manufacturer. In all his large blank books, he uses the improved patent mode of sewing, which gives strength, with great elasticity, and is incomparably superior to any other method for blank books, and will keep the leaves firm and solid while the book lasts, instead of coming to pieces, as is often the case with all other methods. No additional charge is made for this improvement.

Machine Ruling.—Ruling of every description, for blank books, tax lists, &c, neatly and promptly executed.

Fancy Articles.—He is also prepared to make all kinds of fancy articles, such as ladies' and gentlemen's portfolios, caskets, card, spectacle and segar cases, pocket books, &c, with neatness and despatch.

Ruled Music Paper.—He will also keep on hand a supply of blank paper ruled for manuscript music, which he can sell at so low a price that it will be a great saving of time, labor and money, to buy this all ruled and ready for writing the music

Albums, Magazines, Music Books, &c, will be bound with the greatest care, and in a neat and elegant style, to which the attention of the ladies is most particularly invited.

Bibles, Hymn, Prayer and School Books, are constantly kept on hand, as also

STATIONERY, of all kinds, such as writing paper, ink, quills, steel pens, sealing wax, slates, writing books, and wafers, and a variety of books too numerous to mention.

GILT PICTURE FRAMES.

He is also in constant receipt, (imported direct from Germany by himself,) of a superior article of gilt frames, of all sizes, which he will sell at prices which cannot fail of suiting purchasers. He will be happy to show his goods and style of work to all who will favor him with a call, as he is confident that he can please every variety of taste. By good work and honest dealing, he expects to gain the patronage of the citizens of Milwaukee and the surrounding country oct12 d2d

Latest and best Collection of Church Music.

NOW READY,

THE GOLDEN LYRE:

A NEW Collection of Church Music, adapted to the various metres now in use, together with a great variety of new Anthems, Sentences and Chants, for choirs, singing classes, musical associations, and social sacred music circles—by V C TAYLOR, author of "Taylor's Sacred Music Minstrel," "Choral Anthems," &c &c

"We have explored its contents enough to dare to speak well of it Mr Taylor is, himself, the author of a good part of the work, and he shows musical feeling, taste and invention, which make it no presumption in him to appear as a composer * * * Mr Taylor's pieces are commended by their melody woven into all the four parts, by their expressiveness, which always varies with the subject, and by their uniformly artistic style * * * And last, but not least, the work is more beautifully and clearly printed than any work which we remember of the kind"—N Y Tribune

"We believe the book to be greatly superior to any that has preceded it, and we think it may claim to be better adapted to, and more suitable for, the use of choirs"—Saroni's Musical Times

"We have examined this new collection of church music, and would add our favorable opinion of its merits, to the many encomiums it has elicited"—N Y Evangelist HAWLEY, FULLER & CO,

A RAMBLER'S CONFESSION.

A youth to me a wooing came,
For pity sweet implored me;
And hoped I ne'er could slight or blame
The lad that most adored me
I liked him much, but hid my plan,
To see how he'd refute me;
So frowning cried, "Don't tease, young man,
You don't exactly suit me."

He seemed confounded, vexed, and stared,
Then vowed he'd ne'er deceive me:
Says I, "Young man, you can be spared:
If you please, sir, you may leave me."
"To leave you, love, I never can,
I vow by all your beauty."
"Now pray," says I "don't tease, young man,
You don't exactly suit me"

He stared and sighed, hung down his head,
Which proved I'd fairly caught him;
"O, haste, my love, to church!" he cried,—
You see to what I'd brought him!
"Dear sir," said I, "if that's my fate,
To wed is woman's duty;
Let's fly, or we shall be too late:
You now exactly suit me!"

There are a dozen penny banks lately established in London.

It is said that the fortune of the Rothchilds is not less than $45,000,000.

Fancy a company of Yankee soldiers marching through the streets of London to the tune of Hail Columbia—that is one of the novelties to come off in the neighborhood of the grand Fair.

THUNDER and LIGHTNING.—M. Arago says thunder and lightning are very rare in Egypt, and never known in Lima, nor is there reason to believe in any place in which there is no rain. In the open ocean, far from land, thunder is very rarely heard.

An incombustible paper for roofing houses, has been invented in Germany.

English and French papers excluded from Rome.—Newspapers which express opinions unfavorable to the Papal Court, or to any of the branches of administration, are now unceremoniously excluded from Rome. Remonstrances are made in vain.

A new invention has appeared, for the purpose of reefing topsails from the deck. With this admirable contrivance sail can be taken in, and again made, in a short time, without sending a man aloft. It has been tried on one of the English vessels, and found to answer admirably.

White cravats are now more fashionable than black ones.

3,000 copies of the Bible have been distributed recently in France where it has not been before.

Letters from Algiers announce the most disastrous effects of the cholera. In two days one hundred and fifty persons fell victims to this disease.

Sir Edward Bulwer Lytton contradicts the statement that he has lost his hearing.

Some curious advertisements appeared in the Times, London. Amongst them was one addressed "To Autograph Collectors," offering "For sale, a long letter of Professor Webster's, the murderer of Dr. Parkman."

The Paris Academy has determined that gelatine, as an article of food, has no nutritive properties.

David Copperfield.—This best of the stories of Dickens has been completed.

In England, an old lady who had been deaf for eight years, lately recovered her hearing by her first trip on the railroad. The noise of the train passing under the bridge, "caused something in her ear to give way," and she recovered her hearing.

Upwards of £900 have already been subscribed towards a befitting monument to William Wordsworth.

Cardinal Wiseman is a Spaniard by birth. He was born at Seville, and his father was an extensive wine merchant in the Andalusian capital

Switzerland will send 314 exhibitors to the great Industrial Fair in London, next spring, and the town of Dusseldorf, on the Rhine, will alone send 250.

The city of Rome has suffered somewhat by the Tiber rising 24 feet above its usual level.

Louis Napoleon, when in prison, borrowed £10,000 of the Duke of Brunswick, by which means he effected his escape. He now refuses to pay back, whereupon the Duke, has sued the President of France.

At Upsal, in Sweden, on the 12th ult., twenty-three lunatic patients were burnt alive by a fire in the Royal Hospital.

The advices from India state that the Maharajah has ordered specimens of every kind of Cashmerian product to be got ready for the Industrial Exhibition of 1851. The shawls got up are described as remarkably splendid.

The Sydney papers report the commencement of the first Australian railway. It is to extend from Sydney to the interior.

The Neapolitan Government have granted the sum of twenty thousand ducats for continuing the excavations of Pompei.

A movement has been started at Rotterdam for the formation of a company to establish steam communication between that port and New York.

Queen Victoria has designed a carpet for the fair of 1851.

Cardinal Wiseman has received the title of St. Pudentiana, because St. Peter, in his visit to England, received the hospitality of an English family named Pudens!

A new electric light is exhibiting in London, at the Polytechnic. A strip of silver foil pasted on the ceiling, gives a light equal to two thousand candles.

Mr. Cass, our Charge d' Affairs, at Rome, has received a present from the students of Yale College, of an elegantly bound book, containing the Lords prayer, in 60 different languages. This was given as a testimonial of regard for his services in preventing the college from being occupied by troops, during the rule of the republican government.

Religious disputes are running very high at the present moment in Switzerland.

From Russia we hear that a steamboat company has just been formed at St. Petersburgh for the navigation of the Wolga, the Kama, and their branches, an undertaking which will be of the highest importance to the internal commerce of the country. A capital of three millions of roubles (twelve millions of francs) had been subscribed in a few days, and orders have been given for the construction of steamers, most of them of iron, and built in such a manner that they may be taken to pieces, and carried by land to their place of destination.

☞ The N. Y. Tribune, in a long article on Presidential candidates, predicts that Sam Houston will be the next Baltimore nominee. Texas, after involving us in war, and a debt of a hundred millions, bullying the Union into a sacrifice of 100,000 square miles of territory, and a grant of ten millions of dollars, under a threat of rebellion, ought now to be allowed to furnish the President. When the United States was annexed to Texas, it became merely a province, or dependency of the "Valley of Rascals."

☞ Brig Liverpool, of Kingston, Canada, suffered some by a gale on Lake Erie, on the 22d. She was dismasted, and drifting helpless, when discovered and towed into port by steamer Belle.

☞ Sylvester Graham, whig, of Northampton, Mass., has published a letter to Daniel Webster, on the "Compromises of the Constitution." It is a very able and thorough review of the slave question, and flays Webster alive. We are obliged to some one for a copy.

☞ The Prairie Herald asks, in a tone of superlative contempt for the efforts being made to elevate the condition of women: "When all the women are turned into men, what is to be done for women?" The Herald Editor is evidently troubled to know to which division he shall be assigned. If a general metamorphose should really take place, he might stand some chance of being taken for a man, but if the statu quo should be maintained, we think he would still be taken for an old lady in pantaloons.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 29.

On the 27th inst., at 4 o'clock P. M., the town of Cape Girardeau, on the Missippi river, was visited by a most severe tornado.—Over one hundred building more or less injured; many of them were totally demolished. The Catholic and Methodist Churches are complete ruins. The Catholic College is about half destroyed, and the Convent is almost a total ruin Several of the best brick buildings were entirely levelled, and others partly so. The Steamer Saranac, No. 2, which had rounded to, at the commencement of the tornado, had her chimneys and most of the cabin swept away, besides an amount of deck freight. The cabin of the wharf boat was also blown away. The telegraph masts were both blown down and shivered into pieces.

AN INFAMOUS SCOUNDREL.—About 12½ o'clock on Thursday night, a lady named Mrs. Raynor, residing at 9 Bedford st., employed in Courtland Street, Mark Foley, a cabman, to take her home. After driving a few blocks, Foley took on another driver, after which he entered the vehicle and took a seat beside Mrs. R., whom he grossly insulted, and attempted to violate her person. His insults were resisted, and a scuffle ensued, during which the lady's clothes were torn and much disarranged. Officer Hilliard of the Eighth Ward Police, was informed of the outrage, and arrested Foley, who was held for examination by Justice McGrath.—N. Y. Tribune.

CITY MATTERS.

MILWAUKEE POST OFFICE.—John H. Tweedy, Esq., the newly appointed Postmaster, enters upon the discharge of his duties to-day.

YOUNG MEN'S ASSOCIATION.—According to the Constitution of this Society, the regular annual meeting is to be held to-morrow night, Wednesday being the appointed day for an election of officers, including a Board of Directors, for the ensuing year. This Association is one of importance, and under proper and efficient management, might be the means of producing vast good in the community.—What it has done, may be gathered from the fact that in a city of twenty thousand inhabitants, its operations and benefits have been limited to a little over two hundred individuals—there being that number of subscribers to the institution. We do not believe that this is because there are no more persons in this city who feel an interest in its objects, and are willing and able to contribute to its support. With efficiency, zeal, and proper management, the Association might have been composed of a thousand members.

There is one way, and only one, in which the objects of the Society can be carried out, and its purposes of good accomplished. Its organization is good enough. A change in the character of that, by making it a stock concern, will not be tolerated by a majority of the members.

But let the meeting to-morrow night, be well attended, and let there be a general and free expression of opinion on the part of the subscribers. Let a proper ticket be presented. And at the election, let members vote for a set of energetic, zealous, persevering, practical and progressive officers.

With such a Board, no fears need be entertained for the efficiency of the Association.—They will "keep it moving," and the interests of those who pay their two dollars, and their fifty cents apiece, will be as well cared for as that of those who have paid their twenty-five dollars for a life membership.

☞ BLISS' COMPOUND COD LIVER OIL CANDY.—THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.—This admirable remedy for Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all affections of the Throat and Lungs, has now been before the public for the last year, during which time it has been tested most thoroughly by the most competent to decide upon its merits. Every one knows the virtues of Cod Liver Oil, but it is like a "sealed book" to thousands of suffering invalids on account of its repulsive taste and smell. The proprietor has entirely obviated this, without detracting from the medicinal virtues of the Oil, by combining it with certain other celebrated curatives, in the form of a most agreeable article of confectionery, by which it can be administered to the most delicate invalid with the least inconvenience. Purchasers must beware of counterfeits, as its rapidly increasing popularity has excited the cupidity of certain Druggists and Confectioners in various parts of the country, who are preparing an article under the same name, put up in similar style with a copy of the wrapper, and are thus endeavoring to palm their miserable imitation upon the public as the genuine article. To secure the public from imposition and to prevent farther counterfeits, the proprietor has procured a new and elegant wrapper, with a vignette representing a fleet engaged in the cod fisheries on our coast, and the method of extracting the oil from the livers of the Cods, and have secured the copy-right of the same, and I shall deal with all infringements to the extent of the law.

N. B. Be particular and enquire for ☞ "Bliss's Compound Cod Liver Oil Candy." Examine the wrapper and observe the fac-simile of the signature of the proprietor, without which none can be genuine. COLLEGE SKETCHES.

We shall give a series of College Incidents, from the pen of an intimate friend, illustrating some of the side sports of College life. They will be a faithful transcript of actual occurrences, described without exaggeration, or fictitious embellishment. One object of our little daily is, to develop the latent talent of the community. We therefore invite brief sketches on any topic of common interest. We trust our correspondent, CLIO, will study brevity hereafter.

COLLEGE INCIDENTS—No. 1.

BY CLIO.

Sitting here in my cozy study, at half past 11, P. M., I was reminded of an incident which occurred at the same time of night, while a member of the Sophomore Class, in —— College, nearly eleven years ago. I was occupying what was formerly a tutor's room, in the 3d story front, South Middle, next the Lyceum, and was quietly minding my own business, [illegible] between two languages, and [illegible] some dead Latin poet into [illegible] English, when a piece of Anthracite coal, of the size of a goose egg, came through the window, breaking the glass, and missing my head, struck the opposite side of the room.—Very much indignant at such an interruption, and observing a troop of the boys between the State House and College street, with [illegible] out in different directions, I determined to reconnoitre a little, and doffing my room-mate's cloak, and muffling my face, I sallied out in search of the cause of such a commotion. As I approached College street, one of the [illegible] to prevent discovery, [illegible] toward me, and as I was [illegible] then in the habit of turning out of my way [illegible] to please assailants, I gathered up [illegible] concussion, and the next moment [illegible] made an acquaintance with [illegible] and a pair of legs was making a tangent with the line of my direction, forming a pedestal whose angle rapidly diminished until it became coincident with the plane of the horizon. I passed on, the boys scattered, and I saw the trophy of their triumph, lying on the ground, in the shape of a cracked bell, which they had just relieved from its elevated position on the State House.

I returned to my room, and resumed my review of Horace, when, perceiving the boys dragging the bell towards the College Chapel, I disguised myself still further, and determined to see the play out. I went up the [illegible], and passing noiselessly between North Middle and the Chapel, I took my post [illegible] formed by the steeple, [illegible] at the sides, but always has [illegible] in front, except on great occasions. The boys were now in front of the Chapel endeavoring, by means of ropes, to raise the bell on a tree preparatory for service at prayers the next morning, which was [illegible]. As I was but a few feet from them, I could hear their conversation distinctly.—They had great difficulty in raising it, as it weighed several hundred pounds. A rope, [illegible] had been thrown over a limb, [illegible] from the ground, but it did not play as easily in the fork as in a pulley, and much [illegible] was wasted in overcoming [illegible]. Twice or thrice, after they had raised it [illegible], it slipped their grasp and came down again, and the last time it fell, [illegible] the thigh of a Mr. A., the leader of [illegible] causing him to groan as if shot by [illegible] powder, and making him a cripple for a week. His companions were disposed to relinquish the undertaking, but he [illegible] their making another effort, and [illegible] raising it as high as they were able, they fastened it at half mast, like a flag [illegible].

Being in somewhat of a dare-devil mood, I [illegible] on the steps, in the bright moonlight, in open view of them all, with my cloak concealing my face. Was it tutor or student, who had caught them in the act, and who would send them all away from college, to rusticate three months, for the benefit of their health and morals? Rather an important question for twenty nine young men, whose parents would be still more anxious to learn that the President and faculty had advised their hopeful children to take a trip into "the rural districts." I walked boldly into the midst of them, heard myself called by the names of a dozen of my class-mates, but declining to lay aside my incog., they raised the cry of "seize him," "down with him," and finding it impossible to extricate myself, after shaking off half a dozen of them, and my hat into the bargain, I unfolded my cloak, and said very coolly, "Gentlemen, don't over-exert yourselves! It wont cost any more to take it easy!" They all stood still about a minute in complete wonderment, and then began to beg that I would not expose them. I assured them they need not be alarmed, and that in regard to the sports of the evening,—looking at the maimed man,—I thought they had paid pretty dear for the whistle. And after lecturing them on the folly and inexpediency of such doings, I left them, and was returning to my room, when one of the out-sentinels saw me coming from the group muffled, and stepping quickly to my side, accosted me familiarly, and said the boys who had been in a scrape were a pack of devilish fools. I made no reply; he put one arm around me, and we walked together into the entry that led up to my room. He stopped me at the foot of the stairs, and with a horrid oath, asked me if I thought he was going to let me pass without knowing who I was. In an instant, I relaxed his hold, threw off my cloak, and was about to make an experiment in shortening the facial angle, and enlarging the plane of his countenance, by applying the square of my digits to its circumference, in a scientific and practical manner, when he suddenly turned on his heel and fled, and I gathered up my cloak, walked up to my room and went to bed.

The leader of the band that evening, was a young man of fine talents, the son of a deacon in Massachusetts, who has represented his district in Congress. But he became dissipated, was expelled from College in his junior year, went to Union and graduated there, afterward enlisted in the Mexican war, was a Lieutenant in Mexico, and made much trouble among the soldiers, by his conduct when intoxicated. I have not heard from him since the treaty of Peace with Mexico.

AN ACCOMPLISHED SCOUNDREL.—A year since a young man by the name of Ball, took charge of the Union School in Toledo, at a salary of $600. Every body believed him pious and honest. He attended church regularly, and his deportment was good.

He told merchants and others that he would not get his pay until the end of the year, and on his promise to pay at the end of that time, he contrived to get trusted to the amount of $3,000

On July last, he went to Dr. Bissell's, under pretence of studying medicine, and slept in the office. He had been there but a short time, when on getting up in the morning, he made the discovery that some one had broken open the office during the night, and stole his and Dr. Bissell's watches. No one suspected him. He thus bought a new watch on trust.

On Monday of last week, at the usual hour of opening school, he was missing. He had told Justice Scott on Saturday that he had got track of the stolen watches in Sandusky, and procured a State warrant and took boat for that city, promising to return on Monday. Suspicions were aroused. On inquiry it was ascertained that his baggage was gone, and that he had drawn all his money. A Telegraphic despatch was sent to Cincinnati, and Ball was arrested. Search was made, and the missing watches were found in his overcoat pocket.

He is now lying in jail at Toledo, awaiting his trial at the next term of Lucas Common Pleas.

Up to the day of his departure, no one suspected him of dishonesty. He enjoyed the entire confidence of the community.—Cleveland True Democrat.

MASSACHUSETTS LEGISLATURE.—There are elected to the Senate 11 members of each of the three parties. When the vacancies are filled, there will be 13 Free Soilers, 14 Democrats, and 13 Whigs.

The House probably stands as now elected: Free Soilers, 97; Democrats, 90; Whigs 167. Majority against the Whigs, 20.—Boston Standard.

"Dead as a Herring."—The herring is a delicate fish. Whenever it is taken out of the water, even though it seems to have received no hurt, it gives a squeak, and immediately expires; and though it be thrown instantly back into the water, it never recovers. Hence the proverb—"dead as a herring."

PROCLAMATION.

By the Governor of Wisconsin.

The TWELFTH DAY OF DECEMBER next, is hereby, by the Governor of the State of Wisconsin, appointed and recommended to be observed, by the people of this State, as a day of public THANKSGIVING and PRAYER to our Spirit Father, for the manifold kindnesses and blessings, which, from the plenitude of His goodness, has fallen upon us, both as a State and a Nation.

Gratitude for benefits received, is among the brightest traits of American character, and no people entertain a more elevated sense of their moral and religious duty in manifesting, in a proper and becoming manner, the obligations they owe as the recipients of favors invaluable and unnumbered.

No State enjoys, in a higher degree, the requisites, physical, moral, social and intellectual, conducive to the happiness and prosperity of its people, than our own.

For the acknowledgment of our obligations, for our enjoyment of life, liberty and happiness; of a fertile soil and a healthful climate; of the rewards of successful labor, mental and physical; of liberty of conscience and of speech; of governmental protection, and all wants supplied; the annual day of prayer and thanksgiving has become endeared to the American people, and is regarded as a happy and impressive occasion, worthy to be observed by religious exercises. It calls up the memory of the early purity of our forefathers, whose gratitude and piety instituted its observance. It tends to gladden with joyous hopes, religious sympathy and faith, the family fireside, and to re-unite, with mutual love, the domestic circle. It is a domestic as well as a general and public occasion.

Let us then, as becomes a grateful people, observe this time-honored occasion, and on that day let the voice of praise and prayer, blended with the voice of gratitude, be raised from every place of religious devotion, and from every heart and fireside, to that kind Providence from whose hands all our blessings and enjoyments have been received during the present year.

In Testimony Whereof, I, NELSON DEWEY, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, have hereunto set my hand, and affixed the great Seal of the State. Done at Lancaster, this tenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

NELSON DEWEY.

By the Governor.
WM. A. BARSTOW, Secretary of State.

MILWAUKEE HOUSE,

Corner Main street and Washington Avenue, a few doors east U. S. Hotel.

By SKINNER & AHLUM.

The above well known and established House having been refitted, enlarged and improved, throughout, and neatly furnished, has been leased for a term of years, by CHAS. SKINNER, late of the American, in this city, and Mr. AHLUM, formerly of the Franklin House, Fort Winnebago.

New Furniture throughout, of the best style, and all other conveniences, have been supplied, to make it a First Class Hotel, and it is the determination of the proprietors to have it kept in good style.

A long experience, and great facilities for the business, enable us to make this House in all respects what it should be.

Plenty of barn and stable room, and plenty of good hay and oats always on hand.

☞ Our old customers and friends, and the public generally are invited to give us a call.

TO THE LADIES.

DYER'S WASHING, BLEACHING AND CLEANSING FLUID!

The greatest labor-saving article yet discovered.

BY its use, washing machines and boards and hard rubbing, are entirely dispensed with, and not one quarter of the labor is required to do the washing of a family. The Fluid is a chemical compound of sufficient strength to extract all foreign substances from the cloth, by simply boiling a small quantity of it with the clothes, and without the slightest injury to the most delicate fabric

The expense is not more than that of the soap ordinarily used, and besides this it will be seen that the great wear and tear of clothing consequent upon the old method of hard rubbing upon a board, and the use of the pounding barrel, is wholly dispensed with, and an immense saving is thus made. It is emphatically the female's friend

☞ Warranted to give perfect satisfaction or the money will be refunded.

LIFE ASSURANCE.
Ætna Insurance Company, HARTFORD, Conn.—Annuity Fund, $150,000.—This well known and long established Company, having organized a new department for LIFE INSURANCE, with an entirely distinct capital, exclusively pledged with its reserved accumulations, for the payment of losses upon Life Insurance only, and in no event liable for the other debts, contracts, or engagements of the Company, is now prepared to issue Policies on Lives, at rates materially reduced from those charged by the Mutual Companies. The leading idea of the system adopted by this Company, is, to ascertain precisely what it is worth to insure a given amount upon a life for a certain time, and to charge precisely that sum, and no more: it is attended with none of those vexatious contingencies which are inseparable from the mutual system—it has nothing to do with scrip dividends or bonuses, the declaration of which upon true and equitable principles, is attended with so much difficulty and perplexity—it is perfectly simple, as well as uniform and equal in all its operations.
The promptness, fairness and liberality which have marked all the dealings of this Company, for a period of thirty years, and the well known character of its officers and directors, afford the surest guaranty that its affairs will be so managed as to afford to the assured that ultimate safety and security which is of first importance in Life Assurance.
Policies will be granted payable after death, or upon the party's arriving at a specified age, at his option; in either case, free from the claims of creditors The usual extra risks will be assumed by this Company at reasonable rates.
Pamphlets containing Rates of Premium, and information in relation to the plan of operations, and all necessary papers to effect insurance, may be obtained at the Agency of this Company.

THE
OR
MODERN DOMESTIC MEDICINE
BY KEITH IMRAY, M. D.
Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, and Licentiate of the Royal College of Surgeons, Edinburgh.
AMERICAN EDITION.
One large Octavo Volume, substantially bound.
THIS work presents a concise but clear view of the predisposing causes, premonitory signs, and distinguishing symptoms of disease, with the methods of cure recommended by the most eminent physicians.
The best modes of employing the medicines in general use are faithfully described; and the most approved rules for regulating diet and regimen during the periods of disease and convalescence, are amply furnished.
The art of Preserving Health, embracing special Treatises on Diet, Air, Temperance, Bathing, Clothing, and Exercise, is fully considered.
The publishers of the American edition have introduced Dr. Imray's work with short, illustrated, very complete sketches of Anatomy, Physiology and Surgery; and with directions for the domestic management of the sick, the preparation of their food, and the economy of the sick room, &c. They have also annexed a comprehensive MOTHER'S MEDICAL GUIDE, containing directions for the preservation of health during pregnancy, rules for managing the lying-in-room, and the treatment of infants, including air, clothing, exercise, &c. Also, a large number of valuable prescriptions, arranged for ready application; and a very full classified table of medicines, exhibiting their medicinal properties, doses and uses.
The Index is unusually complete, making the whole a most perfect and valuable work for families.
It can confidently be recommended to physicians and apothecaries, as well as to the public, as a book that will be found singularly convenient for ready reference.

CHICAGO
BRASS & BELL FOUNDRY.
H. W. RINCKER,
No. 198 Randolph street, Chicago. Also on Canal street, opposite Foss's Planing Mill.
THE Proprietor of this establishment is now prepared to cast BELLS of all sizes. He would particularly invite those who wish to purchase Church Bells to those of his manufacture. His Bells will be sold on as reasonable terms as they can be purchased from the east, or from agents of eastern establishments. They will be sold cheaper, in fact, because he can make as good a Bell, that will give as large a volume of sound, as those of eastern manufacture, with one-fourth less weight of metal, and this proportion of money is thus saved in the purchase of his bells He warrants them not to break for one year with proper usage, and should one fail or not prove to be as good as represented, it may be returned to his shop, and be made good without expense to the purchaser, by a re-cast; or be replaced by a new one. If one should break at any time during his life, he will re-cast it for half the expense of casting. Western people will see the advantage in dealing with a western man, and patronizing western interests.
Mr. Rincker is a German, a bell-founder by profession, and he is confident that he thoroughly understands his business
He will cast bells to any tone or key that may be desired. He can also cast his bells to chime in harmony. Heretofore the chiming bells used in this country have been brought from Europe, but he is able to make them as correct and musical in tone as any that may be imported
His bells have taken the premiums at the two last Fairs of the Chicago Mechanics Institute—the last Fair awarding him a Gold Medal. The following is a copy of the Report of the Committee on the Bell submitted for inspection in the Fair of May, 1850:
Article 11, Class No. 6, Church Bells
A Bell of 740 lbs by Mr. H. W. Rincker, of this city, is well made and a smooth casting. It exhibits a great deal of skill in its manufacture; has an admirable tone, and throws a greater volume of sound than any bell with which we are acquainted of its size. A trial was had between the above bell and one manufactured by Mr. Meneely of Troy, N. Y, the latter being considerable heavier of the two, (965 lbs) The arrangement for ringing Mr Ricker's bell was temporary, and by far inferior to that of Mr Meneeley's, notwithstanding which we believe that there was but little difference in the distance that the two bells could be heard, and that the tone of Mr. Rincker's bell was by far the most pleasing to the ear. A Gold Medal was awarded to Mr Rincker.
The above is a true copy of the Report.
G E. SLOAT,
Secretary of the Board of Directors of Chicago Mechanics' Institute.
H. W. RINCKER is also prepared to do all kinds of BRASS WORK, CASTING and FINISHING, on short notice, and in good style; such as Machinery, Magnetic Machines, Physical Instruments, Soda Fountains, Beer Pumps, Stop-Cocks, Gilt Globes, &c.
Also heavy Copper Work, for all purposes.
☞ Old Brass and Copper purchased and taken in exchange for bells, at the market price.
